INTRODUCING THE MOTOROLA C4200

Introducing the new Motorola C4200 corded / cordless combo product, offering two phones in one!

Communicate easily using the ergonomically designed corded handset to ensure all calls are made in comfort, or use the speakerphone on either the corded handset or cordless handset for hands-free conversations.

The cordless handset can be located anywhere within range giving users greater flexibility. Call transfers between the handset and corded base, as well as 3-way conferencing with simultaneous intercom, really does make this product an ideal companion for families and small offices.
